

Commissioner Diana Reynolds Halleman

In addition to her work during her second term with the FCCFW, Diana also serves as Secretary of the board of Families Plus and the Golden Mile Alliance. She serves as President of NAC5 (Neighborhood Advisory Council Area5). She has previously served on the boards of Woman to Woman Mentoring, Celebrate Frederick and CALM, the community mediation center. Diana is a passionate advocate for community service and participates regularly in many local activities and organizations.

In 2001, she was appointed and continues to serve on the Neighborhood Advisory Council (NAC5). She was also appointed to serve on the City Personnel Board and is currently serving her second term as Chairman of the group. Diana is also a trained mediator and large group facilitator.

A former journalist, she graduated in 1996 from Virginia Commonwealth University with a BS degree in Mass Communications. When time permits, she hopes to complete work she started at Mount St. Mary's University for her MBA in management. She currently resides in Frederick with her husband and daughter and is employed as Office Manager & Volunteer Coordinator for the Literacy Council of Frederick County.